Players: not limited

Age Range: 6 and up

You will need:

- At least 1 Ball depending on number of players

How to play [or Instructions]

- Players form a circle with their feet apart and each foot touching the players' feet on either side of them.
- A player stands inside the circle with the ball.
- The Center Player tries to throw the ball out of the circle between one of the player's legs. They can have unlimited attempts.
- The players in the circle try to stop the ball by using their hands.
- If the ball passes through a player's legs, then that player becomes the Center Player and the game starts again.

- You can finish the game at any time.

Variations of the Game

- There can be more than one person in the center depending on the size of the group.
