Players: not limited

Age Range: 10 and up

You will need:

- nothing

How to play [or Instructions]

- Split the participants into two teams. One team will be “crows” and the other team will be “cranes”.

- Have the “crows” line up in one line and the “cranes” in a line facing them. Keep them about several feet apart.
- Establish a “safety zone” for each team.
- Call out either “crows” or “cranes”, and whichever team is called must run to their “safety zone” while the other team chases them.
- If someone on the team that is running for “safety” is tagged, they must join the other team.

Variations of the Game

- The leader of the game can have a coin with white on one side (cranes) and black on the other (crows) to choose which team is being chased and which one is chasing.
