كيفية اللعب [أو تعليمات]

- Create a game area the size of a basketball court. (It can be larger when there are more participants)
- All the players stand at one side of the play area. The aim of the game is to run to the other side and not be tagged by sharks or octopus.
- Two volunteers become sharks. The sharks can chase and tag the players. When sharks call 'Come all the little fishes', all the players must run to the other side.
- When tagged, the player must stand still and be an octopus with their arms out as tentacles ready to tag players as they run by.
- The game end when there is only one player left the catch.
